SAA 39 Note: The 50th Anniversary of the SAA. The intention had been to re-enact the SAA first flight of 1 February 1934 from Durban to the Rand Airport, Germiston in the locally restored Junkers JU52/3M Jan van Riebeeck. The Junkers could not go to Durban due to unfavourable weather conditions caused by cyclone Domonia. The covers were then flown from Durban to Jan Smuts on a scheduled SAA Airbus with Captain L. Viljoen in command. On arrival at Jan Smuts Airport the covers were transferred to the Junkers with Captain John Tainton in command and flown to Rand Airport, Germiston.
